RESIDENCE OF THE PRESIDENT OF THE PHILIPPINES
MANILA

BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE PHILIPPINES

EXECUTIVE ORDER No. 172

CREATING THE LABOR CODE COMMITTEE

WHEREAS, there has been a long-felt need for coordinating, improving and harmonizing the laws, judicial precedents, administrative policies and regulations involving labor-management relations by the adoption of a progressive and all-encompassing Labor Code, guided by the constitutional mandate for the promotion of social justice and protection of labor; and

WHEREAS, there is also an urgent need for a systematic and realistic adjustment of existing policies and procedures affecting government agencies, labor unions, work standards, employment, regulations, judicial remedies, compensation affecting farm and industrial workers, agrarian lessees and government employees, and consequent remedial legislative measures for the attainment of these objectives;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Diosdado Macapagal, President of the Philippines, by virtue of the powers vested in me by law, do hereby create a Labor Code Committee to study, examine and harmonize existing labor laws, policies and regulations and submit recommendations for the amendment, revision and codification of labor and social legislation of the Philippines. The Committee shall be composed of the following:

The Presiding Judge of the Court of Industrial Relations Chairman
Mr. Vicente A. Rafael, President and General Counsel,
Philippine Labor Unity Movement; Labor Director,
National Apprenticeship Council; Labor Representative
L-M Advisory Council Member
The Executive Judge of the Court of Agrarian Relations Member
A Representative of the Department of Justice Member
A Representative of the Department of Labor Member

The Committee shall meet at the call of the Chairman. It is authorized to call upon any department, bureau, office, agency or instrumentality of the government for such information and assistance as it may require in the performance of its work.

The Committee is also authorized to secure such personnel, funds and equipment as may be assigned or allotted to it to enable it to carry out this undertaking which the administration is determined to accomplish.

The Committee shall submit its report and recommendations to the President before the opening of the regular session of Congress.

Done in the City of Manila, this 4th day of October, in the year of Our Lord, nineteen hundred and sixty-five.

DIOSDADO MACAPAGAL
President of the Philippines
