NOTICE

Sirs/Mesdames:

Please take notice that the Court, Third Division, issued a Resolution dated February 8, 2021, which reads as follows:

“G.R. No. 252970 (Glecy Kay Te Lopez vs. Court of Appeals and Gilbert Ong Go). – After deliberating on the petition for certiorari and prohibition (with prayer for temporary restraining order/writ of preliminary injunction) assailing the Resolutions dated March 3, 2020 and July 9, 2020 of the Court of Appeals, Manila, in CA-G.R. SP No. 160667, the Court, without necessarily giving due course thereto, resolves to REQUIRE respondents to COMMENT thereon (not to file a motion to dismiss) within ten (10) days from notice, and to PARTIALLY GRANT A TEMPORARY RESTRAINING ORDER enjoining the Court of Appeals from enforcing its Resolutions promulgated on March 3, 2020 and July 9, 2020 in CA G.R. SP No. 160667 and its Alias Writ of Habeas Corpus to the extent that it directs and commands the Director of the National Bureau of Investigation or his duly authorized representatives to take and have the body of Victor Joaquin Lopez Go before the Court of Appeals, effective immediately and continuing until further orders from the Court. However, this order shall not restrain the Court of Appeals’ instruction to serve summons upon petitioner Glecy Kay Te Lopez and to require her to appear before the Court of Appeals at the time and place specified and to show the cause of Victor Joaquin Lopez Go’s detention and/or restraint of his liberty, pursuant to Section 6, Rule 102 of the Rules of Court. (Inting, J., no part, due to his prior action in the Court of Appeals; Carandang, J., designated additional Member per Raffle dated January 27, 2021.)”
